

Simchat Torah 5782

a message from our chatanim

Following the recent announcement from Ben and Jerry's to stop selling its ice cream in "Occupied Palestinian Territory", we have decided to found a new ice cream company

We will be based in Pinner Shul and would like to share some of our initial flavour concepts with you for approval

Pinner Specials

Yum Yum Yaakov

A nostalgic blend of KitKat and Mars Bar full fat ice cream topped with whipped cream, nuts, extra chocolate and three additional toppings of your choice.

WARNING: may contain strands of beard hair.

Rum Rabbi Rum

A boozy ice cream whose honeyed tones are likely to put you to sleep in your chair at any time of day or night.

Not Now Nigel

Created under strict supervision, you can clearly sense that this flavour is really bursting to get out. A unique gelato that always manages to delight, usually in the most unexpected way.

Some refer to this flavour as simply 'Serene'.

Seasonal Flavours

Azamracadabra

A magical blend of global favours that creates local perfection. Served in bespoke atmospheric conditions with only the very best ingredients, this draws its inspiration from a huge variety of time-honoured traditions to ensure the taste and indeed the experience is simply exceptional.

Available Friday PM only.

You're Sitting in my Sweet

A delicious flavour that causes people around you to claim your ice cream as their own despite there being no indication that it belongs to them. Best enjoyed alone.

Kiddush Pick n Mix (currently unavailable)

An odd mix of chocolate, olive and herring. We're not sure how this one came together but it seems oddly popular.

Does anyone know the petit four?

A simpler version of our Motzei Shabbat special: Match of the Sorbet.

Despite the popularity of Match of the Sorbet, you will find yourself desperate for the delicious nuggets of Does anyone know the petit four, particularly around the time of Shabbat mincha.

Matza Madness

Made with only two ingredients, this plain ice cream is oddly moreish. Best served with something else (some say jam, some say chocolate spread - anything will do!).

Avoid eating large quantities unless advised to do so by a Rabbi.

The Wrong Lemon

A special Succot flavour but despite our best efforts something is not quite right with it. Looks and smells perfect but not quite what we were looking for.

Zionist Zest

The perfect way to conclude any major event, these blue and white swirls carry hints of Jaffa Oranges and falafel. Must be eaten standing.

All-Time Pinner Favourites

Mister Jeffrey's Paradox

Our wackiest flavour yet – this is as strange as it gets! Unquestionably an acquired taste but once acquired, undoubtedly worth another scoop. Available on its own but particularly good with an extra sprinkling of nuts.

Liquorice Lisa

A bright pink ice cream, full of energy and fun. A guaranteed pick-me-up even on a tough day.

The Bimah Banger

A favourite with the groupies, this one packs a punch. However, the occasional customers are often left more confused than enlightened by this one.

Warning: this ice cream may give you an odd urge to loudly proclaim, “YA’ALEH VEYAVO!”

Peppermint PenMar

An old-style, traditional chocolate and mint flavour, only available in a conventional carton and served in double portions only. Best served after eight (or eight thirty during the Summer).

X-Q Z'me

A truly delicious low-fat and low-sodium frozen yoghurt, from an Ayrshire recipe believed to date back to Norman times - best enjoyed together with one of our other unique flavours in a tall glass with a cherry on top.

Perfectly Punctual (Watching the shul choc)

Our version of a classical vanilla (available naturally in White) - by George, this is good!

A great flavour as long as the timing is right – the minute you expect this to finish and it doesn't, the taste disappears and the entire experience is ruined.

Hazelnut Hagbahah

This protein-packed ice cream will undoubtedly make you the stronger as well as filling you with the belief you can lift heavy objects.

DISCLAIMER: your actual ability may differ from expectations.

*Just one gelato, give it to me...
Delicious ice cream, from the Rav and me.
Oy vey, the calories,
Chalav Yisrael, K L B D !*